This statement came as a climax to a nationwide celebration in Germany over the naval successes of the past week in which a number of naval vessels belonging to England were sunk along with merchant ships.

Russia momentarily was expected to begin an invasion of Finland because Finland this morning flatly refused to meet Russian demands and withdraw her troops from the border.

Unless Russia is bluffing or using the Finnish threat, it was indicated by informed opinion that the Soviets will go to war to achieve their aims in the Baltic.

On the western front there was renewed activity with the French driving German troops back from the Maginot Line.

50,000 TONS SHIPPING SUNK IN 48 HOURS

War was believed rapidly spreading into the Baltics as Soviet Russia reported a number of her airplanes shot down by Finnish anti-aircraft guns. This followed closely on the heels of the border incident on Saturday when Finnish troops were said to have killed a number of Red soldiers.

The Finnish government denied that Russia had sent an ultimatum demanding withdrawal of Finnish troops. Observers generally believed Russia would soon begin an invasion of Finland to enforce her demands for naval bases in the Baltic.

King George of England today signed a decree authorizing seizure of German exports.

Almost 50,000 tons of shipping have been sunk by German torpedoes and mines in the North Sea in the last 48 hours. On Sunday 30,000 tons of shipping including a British destroyer, were lost.

The German government continued to claim important victories on the sea and indications are that the war against shipping will be as disastrous as during the last world war.

PRESIDENT HAS INSIDE DOPE ON PONEY WAR

President Roosevelt believes the war in Europe will end within six months, said a highly informed source today in a noon radio broadcast.

The president ate turkey on his own national Thanksgiving day at Warm Springs, Georgia. The president is said to have based his opinion, according to the broadcast, on the almost certain possibilities of two developments. The British blockade, is growing more effective each day and the German people are feeling the results of the war.

As a second possibility, if Germany does not soon show a decided military victory, the Hitler regime will collapse.

It was said in the broadcast that the president was basing his belief on authoritative information received by government sources.

Britain's determination to bring about Germany's capitulation by seizure of exports brought a promise of retaliation from Japan. The Japanese government told Great Britain today she might seize British cargoes on the high seas. This would be an act of war under international law.

Prime Minister Chamberlain in a statement today, said that regardless of the protest of neutral nations, Great Britain is determined to enforce seizure of export-import cargoes to Germany, and the government will do everything in its power to lighten the burden on neutral countries.

Thirty-eight million words were sent by cable during the World War by the War Department alone, at a cost of $1,210,900. With radio and the trans-atlantic telephone as added facilities, this time we probably won't be able to count the dollars, much less the words.

Do your buying now before prices advance. Grant Lumber Company.

STIFF PROTEST SENT BY THE NETHERLANDS

Holland and Belgium were reported angered today and making stiff protest to British government over the latest move by England to stifle German trade by siezing exports.

It was pointed out by these neutral countries that although Germany is at fault for sowing mines in neutral shipping lanes, the British are equally guilty if they move to stop all neutral commerce with Germany if between powers friendly to the Reich.

Far reaching consequences in the Balkans were forecast today when King Carol of Rumania quickly formed a new cabinet placing at its head a man friendly to both France and England. European capitals were quick to see this move as relating somewhat to the recent capitulation of Turkey to British influence and that of France. Rumania was believed to be on the verge of joining with the allies in addition to resisting German economic pressure.

A German submarine was sunk by British war ships in the waters of the North Sea. At the same time another British merchant ship was lost. On the western front French aviators driving American fighting planes, had shot down twenty German reconnaissance craft in the last 48 hours. Some of the German ships were shot down far in the interior of France.

More and more as the days pass, the war in Europe resolves itself into an economic struggle.

Now that the hunting season is on, here is an old timer to shoot at: A buffalo hunter was boasting around a camp fire one night about the speed and efficiency of his skinkers. That day, he said, he had shot a huge buffalo bull, but had only wounded it. He reloaded quickly. Just as he was taking aim for the second shot, here came the bull, charging without his skin.

Steals Clothes to Obtain Money to Get Married; Given Suspended Sentence

Raymond Schiller pleaded guilty in district court Tuesday morning to charges of burglary by fraud and was given a 2 year suspended sentence by a jury upon recommendation of Jamie Clark, plaintiff.

Schiller had spent the night with Clark, a rural mail carrier out of Thorndale, and when Clark left for his work on the morning of Nov. 6, Schiller ransacked his room, taking his clothes. Schiller testified that he took the clothing and sold them in order to obtain money to be married.

Miss Dulcie McCall and Mrs. Herbert Colburn were Cameron visitors Tuesday.

H. G. Haraway and G. C. Howerston returned Tuesday from a visit to Paris where they visited relatives.

Ending a series of courtesies for Miss Alice Fanning before her marriage on Thursday, Mrs. Mott Terry entertained Tuesday evening with a forty-two party with five tables of players present. The home was beautifully decorated with white and gold chrysanthemums placed at advantageous points. Mrs. Lee Batte Harvey won low score and Mrs. Woodrow Lowe and Mrs. Randolph Williamson tied for high. The prizes, a set of dish cloths and a towel were presented to the honoree. The hostess before serving cherry pie with whipped cream and hot tea, placed in the center of each table a reflector in the center of which was a tiny snow covered house and in front the word, "Home." Those present were Mesdames W. D. Bigbee, Woodrow Lowe, Howard Whatley, F. E. Jackson, R. J. Woodum, Randolph Williamson, Lee Batte Harvey, Wayland Hughes, Lois Massey, Dot Jeter and Misses Mildred Thornton, Florine Hobson, Inez Smith, Ray Fanning, Myra Lee Fanning, Mary Joe Fanning, Elizabeth Fanning, Velma Reese, Miss Dorothy and Wynelle Kidd, the honoree and the hostess.

Uncle: "You see, Sonny, I always believe in fighting the enemy with his own weapons."
Tommy: "Really. How long does it take you to sting a wasp?"

HOYTE PTA MEETS

The Hoyte PTA met Friday afternoon, November 24, with an instructive program being rendered. The following program was given:

"The First Thanksgiving" by Mrs. James Elrod, "American Citizenship" by Miss Otelia Wilkerson, "A Musical Selection" by Mrs. Frank Hanel, and "Character Training" by Miss Lois Randolph.

Miss Wilkerson reported there would be a community party at the school Wednesday night, November 29. No admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited to attend.

NOT A FLOP SAY BANKERS

The Little Daily was taken to task today by officials in the First National Bank who said they disagreed that November 23, was a flop as far as celebrating is concerned. H. M. Hefley, president of the bank, spent the day in Austin and reported a most enjoyable time. A. K. Gurecky, assistant cashier, went squirrel hunting and reports a big success. William Sell, in charge of the bank's books, put brake bands in a Model-T Ford car and said he had a real enjoyable day. George Waller, cashier of the bank, played a little golf, rest-and was entertained by his prize dog, Speedy, while Rudolph Marek reports an equally enjoyable day with resting and recreation.

Mrs. W. H. Henley who has been seriously ill for several months, is reported some better.

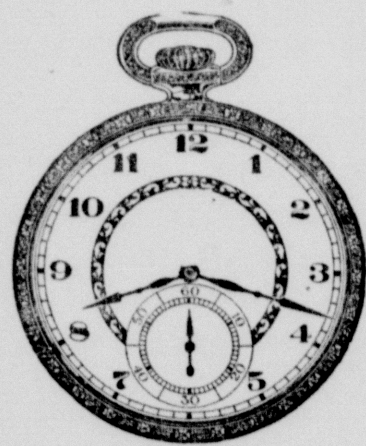

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Walton of Lexington, will be Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Hallie Jones Wofford.

"NOTICE TO TRAVELERS"

The following notice was delivered to the Midget Daily Monday morning by a delegation of young men from Burlington and its publication is earnestly requested and vouched for:

"On Sunday afternoon, November 26, 1939, a group of popular young men of Burlington 'graced' the highway between Burlington and Rosebud with the Re-Dedication of a sign 'Welcome to Milam County, W. A. (Bill) Morrison, D. A.'"

It seems that during Halloween the sign found a resting place in the ditch across the highway.

"In the future the spirits will only play pranks on people who can take it."

Notice of intention by the City of Cameron, Milam County, Texas, to make contract for construction of a Swimming Pool in said City and to purchase the equipment and material therefor, including a Water Filter Plant, and to issue Interest Bearing Time Warrants in payment of such part of such construction and Equipment imposed upon it by the Works Progress Administration Project Proposal entered into by the Works Progress Administration and the City of Cameron.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 163, Acts of the 42nd Legislature of the State of Texas, and amendments thereto, that the City Council of the City of Cameron, Milam County, Texas, will at a meeting of said Council to be held on December 5, 1939, or upon such date as such meeting of the City Council shall adjourn to, in order that an election may be held upon such question by the electorate of the City of Cameron, if necessary, receive bids for the construction work and the material and equipment to be furnished by said city as required by the proposal entered into by the City of Cameron and the Works Progress Administration for the construction and equipment of a swimming pool in said city, in accordance with the terms and provisions of said proposal and the plans and specifications therefor to be seen at the office of the City Secretary of the City of Cameron; and will pass such ordinances, and take such action as may be necessary, to authorize and empower the City to make and enter into any contract for the purchase of said material and equipment, and for said construction work, or any part thereof as the City may elect to contract for, including a water filter plant, and to authorize and empower the City Council to issue its Time Warrants to the said contractor, or contractors, or sellers of such material and equipment in payment of such equipment, and to such construction work, including a water filter plant, the said Warrants to be serial Warrants payable annually with a maximum maturity date of six (6) years from date thereof, providing for four per cent annual interest thereon, and in a total amount not to exceed the sum of $12,000.00; and to levy an annual tax upon all taxable property in the limits of the City of Cameron, sufficient to pay the annual interest on said warrants, and to create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the same in accordance with the maturities thereof.

OUR ERROR

In reporting the Rooseveltian Thanksgiving activities of the personnel of the First National Bank, we unthoughtfully reverted to the good old Model-T days and stated that William A. Frank Richards who was indicted for cattle theft, is a negro and lives south of Rockdale. Frank Richards of Cameron was born and reared in the North Elm community, the son of A. B. Richards and son in law of Sheriff R. M. Kennedy.

The Little Daily is in no way responsible for this misunderstanding and is publishing this information out of courtesy to Sheriff Kennedy and Mr. Richards.

5 YEARS SUSPENDED FOR THEFT OF COW

Herschel Johnson, indicted by grand jury for cattle theft, received a five year suspended sentence by a jury in district court here Monday.

According to officers here, Johnson took the cow from the pasture of Pete Keen and stored the animal in a pen at the home of Frank Richards, a negro, near Rockdale. Johnson sold the cow to Jess Alford. Richards was indicted by the grand jury for receiving stolen property.

Menry Lippman spent the week end in Elcampo, returning early Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Smith, Sr. Quietly Observe 64th Wedding Anniversary in Cameron, November 25

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Smith, Sr. were quietly observing their 64th wedding anniversary at their home in Cameron today.

Sixty-four years ago on November 25, Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married at the historic W. W. Oxshier home built by the late pioneer on the banks of Little River in a remote section of eastern Milam county. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of the late W. W. Oxshier and mother of Oxshier Smith, president of the Citizens National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have spent their entire married life in Milam county. Land holdings of Mr. Smith are extensive, the old W. W. Oxshier plantation and the home, built of logs around 1840, being a part of the estate.

Miss Billie Stover and R. T. Stark of Temple were married Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in the office of the county judge. The young couple will make their home in Temple.

Honoring Miss Alice Fanning, who will be married on Thursday, Mrs. Randolph Williamson of near Sharp, entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday night. There were 14 guests to take part in the activities of the evening which featured a number of games and contests directed by the hostess. A wagon load of beautiful and useful gifts were presented to the honoree when Randy Williamson dressed as a "tough guy" pulled an attractively decorated wagon into the room. The hostess served jello with whipped cream and cake.

Mrs. C. M. Pierce of Rt. 3, Cameron, long time reader of the Herald, will continue reading the Herald for two more years. Mrs. Pierce reported good rains in her section of the county over the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pierce and Miss Hilda Hollas of Austin spent the week end here visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hollas. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hollas returned on Sunday afternoon while Miss Hilda Hollas, who is a student at Draughon's Business College in Austin, will remain through the Thanksgiving holidays.

The local order Eastern Star will meet in regular session Tuesday night. Mrs. Nona Mae McDonald of Madisonville, who is Deputy Grand Matron of Eastern Star, will make her annual official visit on this occasion. Mrs. Margaret Burke, Worthy Matron for the local chapter, will preside.

Ernest Dakel of Cameron and Miss Vivian Taylor of Rogers were honorees at a shower given in the home of Mrs. Leo Hollas Wednesday evening with Mrs. Hollas and Mrs. Bob Busker of Lott, sister of Mr. Dakel, co-hostesses for the occasion which preceded the marriage of Mr. Dakel and Miss Taylor to take place on Sunday, December 3. The bride to be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Taylor of Rogers and popular with a large number of friends of that section. Mr. Dakel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dakel of Cameron and is at this time employed with the Henry Lippman Department Store. The hostesses directed 35 guests in various games and contests after which the honorees were presented with many attractive and useful gifts. A delicious plate of chicken salad with snacks, cookies and coffee was served. Out of town guests included the bride elect's mother and several friends of Rogers and Mrs. Steve Slama of Bryan. A Thanksgiving color scheme was observed in all the details of the party. After their marriage at 9 a. m. Sunday, December 3, at the home of the bride's parents, the couple will be at home in Cameron in the W. I. Clark apartment.

PTA MEETS

38 members and visitors were present when the Buckholts PTA met in regular session Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. P. Elliott presented her pupils in an educational program after which Judge Graham Gillis made an instructive address on "How To Get Along With Others."

Special music was given by Mrs. Gleason accompanied by Miss Melba Minnox. The meeting will be held December 13 at 3:15 o'clock.

J. J. Janicek of Marek was a Cameron business visitor Saturday afternoon.

Their children were according them today the affection and regard of a grateful family. While the aged couple were spending the day quietly at their home, friends were sending flowers, telephoning their congratulations, and calling to express their esteem.

During these three score and four years, history has been a colorful panorama of swiftly moving events and their lives have been a part of it.

In the evening of long and active lives, the homage of a grateful city was a blessing as mellow as the memories that lie along more than a half century back to the romantic days of their courtship and marriage, at the old plantation home built on the frontier.

Mrs. W. D. Bigbee and Mrs. Woodrow Lowe were co-hostesses Friday night at a linen shower given in the home of Mrs. Bigbee honoring Miss Alice Fanning, bride to be of Leroy Raley. A color scheme of white and pink with white predominating was observed in flowers, plate favors, and centerpieces. White chrysanthemums and pink rosebuds were placed at advantageous spots in the room and tiny wedding bells served as centerpieces. After a number of games of forty-two it was found that Miss Florine Hobson held high score. She received a lovely flower vase which was presented to the honoree. Mrs. R. J. Woodum made low score and received a pair of pillowslips which were also given to Miss Fanning. The honoree was presented with a large white covered basket which contained many beautiful gifts of linen. In addition to guests who participated in the games, Mrs. W. M. Fanning, mother of the honoree, was a guest for the shower. A delicious salad plate with hot tea was served by the hostesses. Mrs. Randolph Williamson will honor Miss Fanning with a shower on Saturday night.

Louis Hunter, new pastor of the First Methodist Church of Thorndale Sunday evening at 5 o'clock from a fern banked altar lighted with candles. O what a gal is Lizzie—
She knocks the boys all dizzy!
In looks she's not
So very hot—
Then why is Lizzie busy?
Well, Lizzie's secret power
Is Gladiola flour!
The bread she bakes,
The pies and cakes—
They eat 'em by the hour!

And man-oh-man, those Gladiola biscuits! Big, thick, fluffy—snow-white inside, and flaky and tender... Mmmmm! Say, the first time you set those under that man's nose, you'll see a smile from ear to ear; and he'll say, "Gosh-all-Friday, honey, these are BISCUITS!"
